

Afford the education your child needs!

Tennessee offers 3 education scholarships for K-12 students.

 You may be eligible for $7k-10k/year.

Education Freedom Scholarship (EFS)

Universal K-12 Eligibility

35,000 Scholarships Available*

$7,530/yr

With this scholarship, you can direct state funds toward qualified education expenses, starting with tuition and/or fees at qualifying Tennessee private schools. All K-12 students enrolled in a category I-III school are eligible. See more about qualified expenses here: togetherforeverystudent.org/parents/#efs

This is the quantity funded annually. Ask your school for more information about prioritization tiers or visit togetherforeverystudent.org.*

Individualized Education Account Program (IEA)

For Students with an IEP / Diagnosis

Unlimited Scholarships Available

$6,957/yr (avg)

Scholarships for private education options to K-12 students with an IEP and primary or secondary diagnosis of Autism, Deafness, Deaf-blindness, Developmental delay, Hearing impairment, Intellectual disability, Multiple disabilities, Orthopedic impairment, Specific learning disability, Traumatic brain injury, or Visual impairment. There are no enrollment caps. Requires prior enrollment in public school, eligibility to enroll in a Tennessee school for the first time, or having received an IEA the previous year.

Education Savings Account Program (ESA)

Low-Income Students in Chattanooga, Memphis, or Metro Nashville

15,000 Scholarships Available

$9,329/yr (avg)

Supports qualifying students (student is a member of a household with an annual income that is not more than twice the federal income eligibility guidelines for free lunch) located in the public school systems in the Achievement School District, Hamilton County (Chattanooga), Shelby County (Memphis), or Metro Nashville. Parents can direct their ESA dollars to tuition or fees at a private school and other educational expenses. Requires prior enrollment in public school, eligibility to enroll in a Tennessee school for the first time, or having received an ESA the previous year.
